

NEWSLETTER 5th March 2010

We had a wonderful day yesterday celebrating World Book Day. All the children looked superb dressed as different book characters; it was a little strange sitting in the staffroom at lunch time with a penguin eating soup and Horrid Henry eating a very healthy lunch. The children, and staff, were enthralled by the story teller who visited and worked with each class.

I am in the process of replacing our cook Mrs Park, who left suddenly at the end of half term. Whilst I have tried a number of solutions I am optimistic that we will appoint a new cook in the next week. In the meantime the school kitchen will have to offer a limited choice for dinners of jacket potato or pizza on Monday and jacket potato or baguette on Tuesday. There will be a roast on Wednesday. I apologise for the inconvenience this may cause and hope to be able to offer our normal high standard of school dinner choices as soon as possible.

I am also in the process of replacing the school photocopier and hope to be able to produce a higher quality copy of the newsletter in the near future.
